

Better Together Chair Signs

By Milinda Stephenson

Supplies Needed:

- Two pieces of canvas, two inches larger than your embroidery hoop
- Ribbon for hanging
- Plastic canvas to stabilize chair signs
- Embroidery thread
- Downloads for your machine and hoop size

Fabric and Notions:

- Approximately 1/2 yard of print cotton fabric
- 12" square of white felt
- Thread
- Scissors
- Plastic canvas 6" circle (optional)

Instructions:

Step 1: Hoop Canvas and Embroider

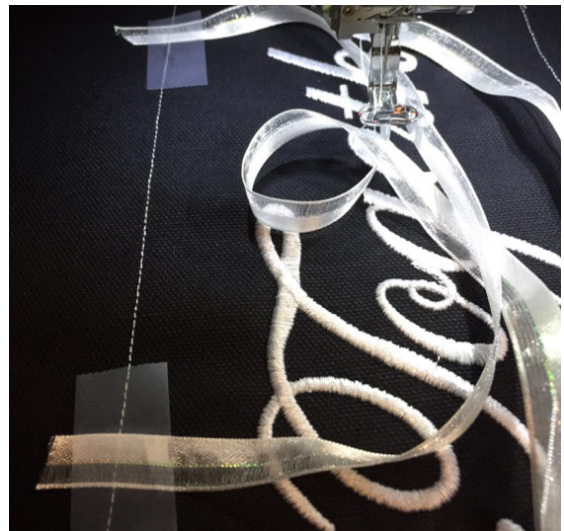

- Hoop the canvas securely and choose color 1 for the lettering (together or forever).

Step 2: Placement Line

- Change the embroidery thread color to match the fabric.
- Sew the placement line.

Step 3: Tape Ribbon Holder

- Measure the ribbon the length you would like for the hanging sign.
- Tape the ribbon to the top of the placement line with the ribbon ends facing out.

Step 4: Place Fabric Backing

- Place the fabric backing over the embroidery, right sides together.

Step 5: Sew Down Fabric Backing

- Repeat with sewing color 2 to sew down the fabric backing.

Step 6: Remove and Trim

- Remove from the hoop and trim around all four sides.
- Turn right side out.

Step 7: Insert Plastic Canvas

- Using the sign as your guide, cut a piece of plastic canvas 1/4 the height of your finished sign and 7/8 the width of your finished sign.
- Fold the plastic canvas in half and insert through the opening.

Step 8: Hand Sew the Opening

- Hand sew the opening closed.
